Dear General:

STATOTHR

In July of last year you sent to me a young man named [REDACTED] who had been with the 82nd Division and in liaison from that Division to OSS. STATOTHR

I recently received a letter from [REDACTED] asking about a rejection of his application and stating that he had spoken to you recently. I have gotten out his file and have carefully checked the circumstances of the rejection.

In case he gets in touch with you again, I want you to know that I am quite satisfied that the rejection was proper and no other action could have been taken under the circumstances. I have written him a letter, a copy of which I enclose for your information.

Sincerely,

LAWRENCE R. HOUSTON
General Counsel
